The screenshot shows a web interface for a video information service. At the top, there is a logo with a target and the text 'Your Custom Video Information Service'. Below this, there is a search bar with the text 'Instant clip search:' and a 'Find & Play' button. To the right of the search bar, there is a dropdown menu labeled 'All sources'. Below the search bar, there is a section titled 'Your eClips profile search for October 30, 2001'. This section contains a table with three columns: 'Topics found:', '# of clips', and 'Source'. The table lists four topics: 'AT&T' (8 clips, Custom source), 'Politics' (10 clips, Custom source), 'Jay Lenos White H...' (2 clips, Custom source), and 'Sports' (6 clips, Custom source). To the left of the table, there is a vertical list of buttons: 'Home', 'Profile', 'Archive', and 'Logout'. Below the table, there are two buttons: 'Play all clips' and 'Add a new topic'. Handwritten annotations in blue ink are present throughout the image, including '430' next to 'Home', '435' next to 'Profile', '440' next to 'Archive', '445' next to 'Logout', '410' next to 'Instant clip search:', '415' next to 'from:', '405' next to the table, '420' next to 'Play all clips', and '425' next to 'Add a new topic'.
